

What If...

*Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,
And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish;
because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion,
that they should believe a lie:
That they all might be damned who believed not the truth,
but had pleasure in unrighteousness.*

Have you ever seen such a potential lopsided election and future coming up?

How about the obviously ridiculous platforms from the 'left'? Go down the list – they act like they are proud to be completely blind to America's needs and they are so hateful they can't even hide their desire to change America. They are saying they will raise taxes, take away our guns, mask the entire country, shut down the businesses, abortion, believe that riots are peaceful and necessary. Their growing list is so absurd, one would wonder if they are delusional!!!

Before I say anything else, let's look at the other side.

Trump is the charismatic leader to millions: he is a hero, loves America, great patriot, spends money like no other, sounds almost 'god-like' in the ads and in the convention and with his staff is making deals with everyone in the world. He is supporting and uniting all the global religions; the Great Commission modern Christian supports him completely. Trump supports all the perverse lifestyles, prays with all religions, is big on global unity, supports the vaccine, comments on using the military to distribute it to everyone, was party to shutting down the world's economy and yet the world's 'right' loves him. He is totally supportive to a complete 'global reset' and has the power, the money, the mental skills, the charisma, and the support to make it happen...

WHAT IF:

The LEFT is all about being so delusional that they should believe a lie.

The RIGHT is all about creating the global reset, which will include a global leader, global religion, global economy, global enforcement that would enforce worshipping the beast and the mark, etc.

We can REALLY smell the Tribulation as it gets closer and understand II Tim 2:4

No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

If you want to be a soldier for Christ, your real war is a war with your own flesh.

Fight it while you still can win some important battles within yourself.

Let Paul be your masterbuilder, prepping you for your judgment seat of Christ!
